Introduction

Cotswold Carriers, a family-run business of high repute, was established in 1978

In more than 30 years of operation, Cotswold Carriers have achieved an excellent reputation. We undertake most kinds of domestic and commercial removals and particularly specialise in transporting antiques and fine art. We also have comprehensive storage facilities at our Oxfordshire base. Cotswold Carriers regularly move household furniture and effects to and from the Continent, encompassing large and part loads, including regular services to and from France and Spain.

We offer a warm, friendly and intimate service where individual needs and requirements are all treated with equal importance and confidentiality.

Moving with Minimum Fuss

Moving house can be very stressful, but at Cotswold Carriers, we like to think that we can move clients from their present home to their new home with a minimum of fuss and with their goods still in the same condition - we know that we shall have another satisfied customer.

Our international experience with Customs formalities is another valuable asset. We are known to Customs Agents on almost every border and are able, knowing the intricacies of the procedures and documentation, to pass this knowledge on to our clients.

We pride ourselves on having satisfied customers and we have a file full of letters from contented clients
